LONDON, Jan. 27 .- That the authorities expect a speedy resumption of Zeppelin raids on London and that the danger to which the populace will be exposed on such occasions is greater than ever, is indicated by the publication of a police warning tonight, which reads: "The increase in offensive protection against hostile aircraft recently provided in the metropolitan district makes it more necessary that the public on the occasion of air raids take cover so as to be sheltered from falling fragments of shells."

Hand-to-hand fighting between the French and Germans near Neuville took place when the French tried to retake trenches captured from them by the Germans. Berlin reports that all the attacks were repulsed.
